

Small Group Notes

Date: Week commencing Sunday 16th January

Welcome

How are you doing?

How have you seen Jesus at work in your life this week? What have you sensed Him saying to you?

Worship

Start by spending some time in worship together. If you have a worship leader(s) in the group, ask them to lead worship. Alternatively, we have compiled a couple of playlists with a range of songs for you to use during worship and ministry.

1) Some opening questions:

For those there on Sunday, what do you remember being said? Importantly, what did Jesus say to you & how did you respond? (encourage people to share personally)

2) Read bible text aloud in the group (I (Rob) used the Message on Sunday to keep it fresh this is a familiar passage!)

- What jumps out to you from this passage of scripture?
- What is the Lord saying to you from this Bible text?

3) Talk summary

Take a look at the "talk in two" video

4) Questions for application

We can't be carriers of good news unless the good news lives in us

- *What does it look like for Jesus to truly be Lord of your life - in your relationships, in your attitude to work, in how you spend your time and your money?
Take one of these areas - what steps could you take to allow Jesus to be Lord of your life?*
- Where do you see yourself in the parable of the Good Samaritan?
- What can you learn from the actions of the Good Samaritan? How can you carry good news to those around you?

5) Prayer ministry

Spend time praying for each other. The goal here is to minister in the power of the Holy Spirit, rather than intercessory prayer. We believe that the Holy Spirit is present and able to change and heal right now! The follow the model below is based on how Jesus prayed for people. It's not a formula but a model we've found extremely helpful. As we demonstrate it, others will "catch it".

There are 3 simple steps: ASK – PRAY - ASK

- i) ASK – ask the person what they're asking Jesus to do for them
And ASK the Holy Spirit what He is wanting to do
- ii) PRAY – like Jesus did, pray your best prayers. Invite the Holy Spirit to come, and then wait. As pray-ers, let's keep our eyes open to see what the Holy Spirit is doing
- iii) ASK – what's happening? If the pain was a 10 out of 10 when they walked in tonight, ask them what they would score the pain now? What are the next steps? Thank God and ask for more. You may find it helpful to go through these steps 2-3 times.

To ponder or pray about this week...

Suggest a question or activity to take away and do during the week to help in the process of reflection and application.

Some tips for leading a small group Bible discussion:

- Leading a good Bible discussion is primarily about asking good questions - it's more art than technique and has to be learned "on the job"
- We're aiming for self disclosure and application rather than theoretical discussion.
- Recognise that people are on a journey - they may be exploring faith or been following Jesus for years.
- It may be helpful to start with a lighter ice breaker question, then press in a bit deeper
- Open questions are good – "What, How, What if..."
- Ask questions that require more than a yes/no answer
- Ask questions that are neither insultingly easy nor bewildering obscure!
- Supplementary questions are really important - ensure people are grasping meaning rather than trotting out mechanical answers
- Supplementary questions have to be asked in the moment, but preparation helps to anticipate various replies
- Some helpful questions could include ... how does that tie in with the rest of the passage? Can you give an example of that? How do you think this could work out in our lives?
- Avoid leaving people thinking "so what?!!"
- Remember that all roads in scripture lead to Jesus!
