Sermon series: Radical Generosity

Talk title: Radical Generosity

Bible Text: Luke 10:25-37

Welcome

How are you doing?

How have you seen Jesus at work in your life this week? What have you sensed Him saying to you?

Worship

Start by spending some time in worship together. If you have a worship leader(s) in the group, ask them to lead worship. Alternatively, we have compiled a couple of playlists with a range of songs for you to use during worship and ministry.

1) Some opening questions:

For those there on Sunday, what do you remember being said? Importantly, what did Jesus say to you & how did you respond? (encourage people to share personally)

2) Read bible text aloud in the group

- What jumps out to you from this passage of scripture?

3) Talk summary

One of the qualities that Christians should be most known for is radical generosity. From the story of the good Samaritan we see:

- Radically generous people find reasons to give rather than reasons not to
- Radically generous people are sacrificial
- Radically generous people look for opportunities to be generous

4) Questions for application (2-3 questions max.)

Some weeks, suggested questions will be given. Other times we could leave to group leaders

- Why do you think that we sometimes (maybe often!) look for reasons to limit our generosity, rather than leaning into radical generosity?
- Andy spoke about the gift day on 21st May and encouraged us all to be prayerfully reviewing our regular giving, as well as prayerfully considering how we can give over and above to serve & love the next generation through some projects at Riverside as well as to Vineyard DTI. How are you going to approach a prayerful review of your own financial giving?

5) Prayer ministry

Spend time praying for each other. The goal here is to minister in the power of the Holy Spirit, rather than intercessory prayer. We believe that the Holy Spirit is present and able to change and heal right now!

The follow the model below is based on how Jesus prayed for people. It's not a formula but a model we've found extremely helpful. As we demonstrate it, others will "catch it".

There are 3 simple steps: ASK – PRAY – ASK

- i) ASK – ask the person what they're asking Jesus to do for them
And ASK the Holy Spirit what He is wanting to do
- ii) PRAY – like Jesus did, pray your best prayers. Invite the Holy Spirit to come, and then wait. As pray-ers, let's keep our eyes open to see what the Holy Spirit is doing
- iii) ASK – what's happening? If the pain was a 10 out of 10 when they walked in tonight, ask them what they would score the pain now? What are the next steps? Thank God and ask for more. You may find it helpful to go through these steps 2-3 times.

To ponder or pray about this week...

Suggest a question or activity to take away and do during the week to help in the process of reflection and application.

Some tips for leading a small group Bible discussion:

- Leading a good Bible discussion is primarily about asking good questions – it's more art than technique and has to be learned "on the job"
- We're aiming for self disclosure and application rather than theoretical discussion.
- Recognise that people are on a journey – they may be exploring faith or been following Jesus for years.
- It may be helpful to start with a lighter ice breaker question, then press in a bit deeper
- Open questions are good – "What, How, What if..."
- Ask questions that require more than a yes/no answer
- Ask questions that are neither insultingly easy nor bewildering obscure!
- Supplementary questions are really important – ensure people are grasping meaning rather than trotting out mechanical answers
- Supplementary questions have to be asked in the moment, but preparation helps to anticipate various replies

- Some helpful questions could include... how does that tie in with the rest of the passage? Can you give an example of that? How do you think this could work out in our lives?
- Avoid leaving people thinking "so what?!"
- Remember that all roads in scripture lead to Jesus!
